

Media Statement

Monday, 25 September 2023

NHS Scotland Reinforced Autoclaved Aerated Concrete (RAAC) Survey Programme

Reinforced Autoclaved Aerated Concrete (RAAC) has not been identified as a material used in the construction of any buildings within the State Hospital.

This was ascertained from a NHS Scotland survey carried out in October 2020.

For more information, contact:

Communications Department
State Hospital

Tel: 01555 842016

E-mail: TSH.info@nhs.scot

More information can be found on our website at <https://www.tsh.scot.nhs.uk/>

Follow us on X (formally known as Twitter) (@TheStateHospit1)

Like us on Facebook (TheStateHospital)

Subscribe to our YouTube Channel (@thestatehospitalcarstairs12477)

The State Hospital, a high secure, forensic setting provides tailored care and treatment for a maximum of 140 male patients who present with complex needs. The Hospital is a national resource for Scotland and Northern Ireland, delivering person-centred care which supports the recovery process and maintains public safety.